Maternity Waiting Home

Goal-

Goal of this Project is to provide institutional care to pregnant women of remote areas for their safe delivery at Hospital to reduce mother and child mortality.

Reduction in mother and child mortality:-

Institutional care of mother is very much necessary in remote tribal belt areas for safe maternity where majority of the women are illiterate, believing in superstitions and facing hurdles to go to hospital due to communication problem. One maternity waiting home (Maa Gruha) is running by SHAKTI Organization under NRHM Scheme at Kashipur Block of Rayagada District. This Block of Rayagada District is well known as dominated area of poor rural indigenous tribal mass who believes in traditional superstitions instead of hospital for check up, treatment and delivery. SHAKTI Organization has accepted the challenge in motivating the pregnant women of such villages to stay at Maa Gruha and to ensure their safe delivery at Hospital thereby reducing mother and child mortality. Pregnant women 10 days before delivery date are invited to stay at Maa Gruha with an escort till their safe delivery. They were served with free lodging, fooding, regular check up by ANM, counselling through IEC materials by Lady Health Assistants and assisted by the Maa Gruha staffs in every aspect till their delivery. At Kashipur Block during FY 19-20 total 252 cases admitted at Maa Gruha covering 10 remote GP of Kashipur such as Mandibisi, Godibali, Siripai, Adajore, Sunger, Renga, Talajhiri, Chandragiri, Manusgaon, Maikanch with 16 Sub-centre which include 228 villages. Cases from remotest area where movement of vehicle is difficult and from destitute families are always given more priority to ensure their safe delivery.

This village of Kashipur is one of the remotest villages with lack of proper communication route to main road. Kalesing Majhi used to work as daily wage labour and most of time remains outside of house in search of work. The financial condition of the family was poor and estimated to less than 50,000/year. Kemeldei Majhi had bitter experience of giving birth to baby who has succumbed to death within 6 month during her first delivery case. In the second delivery she had given birth to a girl child and this was the third delivery of Kemeldei Majhi. Lack of proper nutrition, care and communication route is the main reason of infant and mother mortality in the area. Staffs of MWH, Kashipur after getting information regarding the case reached at the place, counseled the family members regarding benefit of staying at MWH, available facilities and ensure them for safe delivery of the infant. Facilitated by staffs of MWH, the case arrived at MWH, Kashipur with her mother in law and little daughter through 108 ambulance, stayed continuously for 15 days, obtained all available facilities of MWH like lodging, proper nutrition, knowledge on maternal issues and infant care, regular health check up and at last she had given birth to a girl baby at CHC, Kashipur successfully. The health condition of both mother and baby was good. While leaving Maternity Waiting Home, Kemeldei Majhi expressed her gratitude towards MWH for the proper institutional care that she has been provided during her stay at MWH which is the reason of her safe delivery at Hospital.
